

Heartsong

Genre: LGBT Urban Fantasy/Paranormal Series: Previous Book: Skin Deep
Trystan Raines loves cock. That's a bonus in his line of work--he's a prostitute, and damned good at his job. But pickings have been slim lately, and he's homeless and flat broke. So when a stranger offers him a million dollars to play escort for a month, he jumps without looking--right into a world most humans don't know exists. The world of the Fae. And his new master-for-a-month is their gorgeous prince, Braelan, who wants to experience New York with a human. Uriskel also serves Braelan, as a bodyguard, but his term is a lot longer than Trystan's: life, without possibility of parole. He's also Braelan's half-brother--but he can't let the prince know that, or the King will have him killed. Uriskel is less than pleased when Braelan introduces his new human toy, and informs him that he's to play bodyguard to the prince in the human realm. Trystan thinks Uris an asshole. Uris thinks Trystan's a fool. But when the prince forces them to perform sexual favors with each other for his amusement, they discover mutual lust that deepens to love. Unfortunately, there's no way the prince will let them be together--unless it's over Uris' dead body. Publishers Note: This book contains explicit sexual content, graphic language, and situations that some readers may find objectionable: Male/male sexual practices, violence.
