

A Man Like No Other

Two headstrong, single-minded agents, one incredibly fiery passion, can they stay alive long enough to see where it leads? Special Agent Taber Kysenzki is the DEAs bad boy, he has no qualms of straddling the line of right and wrong, doing whatever necessary to get the job done. But when he botches up an undercover operation, hes faced with a woman unlike any hes met before. She saves his life but doesnt deign to give him the time of day. Hed heard rumours of an agent with his reputation in the ATF but hadnt met her until today. Special Agent Serefina LeBenoit is the ATFs equivalent to Kysenzki. She knows all about him, how he goes through women and she doesnt have any desire to be another notch on his belt. She has a rule of not sleeping with certain men, he fits that criteria. All that changes one night a few months after their first volatile meeting, when he tracks her down in a bar in New Mexico. Circumstances bring them together again when a killer from her past resurfaces. Together they work, skirting the line of the law, to get the murderer off the street. Sparks fly hot between them as they close in on the target. When the bullets stop flying and the smoke clears, will they ignore the chance of a lifetime?
