

Cultural Property Disputes: The Role of Arbitration in Resolving Non-Contractual Disputes

The originality of this work lies in its in-depth consideration of practical, procedural problems related to transnational arbitration in extra-contractual situations. Particular attention is given to voluntary and forced intervention, and to consolidation, co-ordination or suspension of related arbitration proceedings. Those concerned with restitution of cultural property and the effective use of arbitration in non-contractual disputes will find this book a valuable resource. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint.
