(ALZHEIMERS)Hello, my name is Andrew

Ever wonder how in the world you were going to care for your best friend, your husband, or your wife with Alzheimers? Because I did too! I was new to all of this. You have to start somewhere and the more you know, the better it is on you, the caretaker. You do give up a great deal of your social life, but how much and for how long? This book is an accumulation of over a year with Andrew. Im still caring for him, and yes, its progressively getting worse. If you or someone you know is facing this situation, first, get as much information as you can. I wasnt given that luxury. This is my first hand experience with Andrew and Alzheimers as his caretaker and friend. The contents of this book were taken from my journal. If I repeat myself, I apologize but what you find here, just may help you ride out the storm and make your journey less painful. Coming out in August is the sequel named The Long, Long, Goodbye. This final journal goes deeper into the affects on friends and famly, how well Im holding up, or not? And some humorous incidents that happened at the right time. Andrews personality is slipping away faster as he becomes more child like in his persistant questions. Please leave a review for others and myself of course! God bless.
