

Bimbo Hotel: A Bimbofication Tale Part 1

Welcome to Bimbo Hotel! Madison Westly is the lucky heir to the world-class Westly Hotels franchise, and her future looks bright. That is, until she agrees to undergo a very special type of employee training. Now she's trapped inside the body of a big-and-busty bimbo and you won't believe what's in store for her next! Her spine-tingling adventure is about to begin at Bimbo Hotel! _____ She simply couldn't believe it was happening. There she was, on the floor of her room—a room that was every inch a girly-girl dream come true. It was a pink dollhouse nightmare everywhere she looked: from its pink unicorn-and-rainbow wallpaper, to the piles of fluffy stuffed toys peeking out from every corner of the room, to the heart-shaped floor pillows that were strewn willy-nilly about the cotton-candy carpeting that covered the floor. It was on one of these pillows that she now sat—not that her over-plumped peach didn't provide more than enough cushioning. She stared up at Dr. Carlton with new eyes. They were wide and doll-like now, sparking with a vapid azure gleam, their long lashes flapping idiotically as she tried to blink away her remaining fears. Dr. Carlton sat in an oversized wooden rocking chair looking down at his latest bimbo creation. She seemed sullen but reasonably calm now—she'd fussed a bit when he'd taken her out of the bed and placed her onto the floor, but once it was apparent that complaining was futile she decided to hear what he had to say. You're wondering what you're doing here in this condition, he began, spreading his hands wide in a magnanimous gesture. And I'm quite willing to tell you. And after I have finished, if you promise to behave yourself, I'll allow you to ask me any of the questions that might be floating around in that cute little head of yours. Agreed? You ... you jerk! The angry words banged around the pink walls, but she had to admit—she did want answers. She nodded once. Excellent, said Dr. Carlton. Well then, let's begin at the beginning. _____
