

Blacque/Bleu

Genre: LGBT Shape-shifter/Vampire Paranormal A closeted werewolf and a dying vampire give in to desire and make an unusual and powerful connection. Lukas Blacque is a deeply closeted werewolf, and almost more than anything in life, he desires his neighbor, Oliver Bleu. Oliver is a vampire who is slowly dying from insomnia. More than anything, he needs Lukas Blacque and the rich blood that flows through his veins. On the day that Blacque makes an important commitment to his family and pack, he also succumbs to temptation and agrees to a passionate weekend with the alluring vampire. At sunset on Friday, its all about urgent lust and the drive to lose his virginity. When the sun rises on Monday, lust has shifted to love and devotion. Hes not sure he can walk away, even for the commitment hes made. Hes even less sure Bleu will let him go. In Blacques world, vampires and werewolves make uneasy bedfellows, and a gay werewolf is an impossibility. In Bleus world, all living creatures are little more than vessels for food and sex. But in the mysterious and magical town of Arcada, the unexpected is always waiting right around the corner. Now Blacque and Bleu just need to survive long enough for Arcadas magic to work for them. Publishers Note: Blacque/Bleu is related to Chrysalis and Mad at the Moon, which are available at Changeling Press. This book contains explicit sexual content, graphic language, and situations that some readers may find objectionable: Bondage, domination, male/male sexual practices, violence.
