

Blasphemer, Sinner, Saint (Bump in the Night)

Tobias Sinnet has left his boyhood days of sin behind him. As the caretaker of a boys orphanage in Whitechapel, he teaches the children to live by the word of God, keeps his daily prayers, and goes to bed each night with a clear conscience. Until David, the boy who tempted him in their youth, arrives on his doorstep. Forced to prostitute himself to keep his younger brother in school, David has grown ill, and all he wants is for Tobias to agree to look after his brother when he's gone. But as they reconnect, Tobias finds it unexpectedly difficult to let David go and, thanks to a mysterious stranger offering Tobias the deal of a lifetime, he may not have to.
