

Pins and Needles 2: Second Opinion (Medical Masochism)

After assisting Trisha with her CPH24 experiment that turned hot, heavy, and extremely intense, he cant stop thinking about the things she let him do to her. She calls him up, desperate. Without his help she cant find the intense release she needs. All those lovely sharp things, so much sensitive skin. Excerpt: How many items have you tried on yourself? All of them. She cleared her throat and took a deep breath, her hands clenching the mattress as she tried to calm herself. Even this? I held up a rather sizable needle. With a sharply angled tip and thickness not used for human patients it was evidently a veterinarian syringe. Where had you inserted this implement? I didnt get to that... I was working up to it. Do you want to use this today? She clenched her jaw and squeezed her eyes shut. Of course. Where? Where do you think?...
