

California Dreaming

Brenda is a full figured ebony woman with a new job in a new city. On the surface, she seems to have everything going for her, but underneath her confident exterior lies a sadness that permeates every fiber of her being. Having recently lost her mother to breast cancer, she has relocated in order to start over and hopefully, find some peace. Instead she finds Samuel Ledford, a hot young fireman with hazel eyes and a boisterous personality. Though she doesn't take to him at first, that will all soon change as she finds herself falling for someone who she would have never imagined herself with. She quickly finds herself facing a choice between letting him in or getting out without sacrificing her heart. A quick read. 9700 words. This is a black woman white man interracial romance short story.
