

Satellite Of Love (Gender Swap Transformation Erotica Thriller)

I want your cock, Mitch. How long has it been since you had some pussy? Astronaut Chris Meriwether just wants to get home, but one more mission to repair a top secret CIA satellite will change his life forever. When the satellites secret contents infect Chris and transform him into a sex crazed woman, the other three men in the station must resist her advances or suffer the same fate. Can they avoid Chriss sexual advances long enough to get home unmolested? Do they even want to?

WARNING: This erotica story contains a strapping, young man transformed into a buxom and horny woman, three other well hung, trapped astronauts, vigorous pursuit through an isolated space station, zero-g sex, a floating 69 and cum extraction. Intended for 18+ readers ONLY.

EXCERPT: She floated back away from him, like an angel in a dream. She was completely naked and she looked down at herself, her giant breasts floating in front of her and squeezed them, firm and soft at the same time. She ran her hand down to her bush and looked. The penis that had been there since Chris could remember was gone, replaced by two soft and moist lips. Chris looked at Mitch as Mitch licked his lips. She smiled, knowing that he could no longer resist. Mitch reached out and grabbed her, flipping her upside down and burying his head between her thighs. She wrapped her legs around his neck and grabbed a hold of his hips to steady herself as they spun in the middle of the module. Mitch said, God, I havent tasted pussy in a long time.
