

Common Market Law Reports 2010: v. 3

Road traffic offences are frequent and wide ranging with many opportunities to appeal sentencing. The bible for those in need of sentencing guidance has always been Sentencing Practice. This same information is now available as the Road Traffic Sentencing Referencer, a paperback book which can be easily taken into court and is affordable for those who don't have access to Sentencing Practice or who would like a separate version of the traffic offences section. The Road Traffic Sentencing Referencer provides clear and practical guidance on the range of sentences that have been passed for a wide variety of road traffic offences. It contains maximum penalties, sentencing guidelines and case digests provided by Sheriff Frank Crowe. This work gives practitioners easy access to a comprehensive collection of road traffic cases to help assess the range of sentence which might be given for a particular offence. Cases range from dangerous driving to drivers hours to driving while disqualified. This title is arranged by case type and can also be searched through the comprehensive table of cases making Road Traffic Sentencing Referencer a time saving device whether in the office or courtroom.
