

Full Service: Notes from the Rearview Mirror

Gear up and put the pedal to the metal with this visual spin through the classic era of automobile design: The service station. Cars with fins and chrome. It was the heyday of America's love affair with the automobile and the afterglow still lingers. Author and photojournalist David Hill has traveled the back roads, state routes, and hiked through the woods of his home state of Maine to find these automotive treasures and photograph them in their pristine state. Feast your eyes on these 100% untouched classic design originals, left in situ to become an eloquent testimony to an age of automotive splendor and American craftsmanship. A special gift for the classic car collector, automotive enthusiast, and/or design student.
