

Constitutional Rights Foundation: Sports & The Law The Ancient Olympic Games Constitutional Rights Foundation Summer, 1996, Vol. 10, No. 2

This publication by the Constitutional Rights Foundation headquartered in Los Angeles, CA. covers the ancient Olympics as compared to the Modern Olympics as revived in 1896. The key question posed is should professional athletes be allowed to compete in the Olympics it also examines the role of women in ancient and modern times. Both points are moot now but it is interesting to explore the issue of professionalism as some still support only participation by amateur athletes.
