

How to Testify Credibly and Persuasively in Court: 101 Winning Tips

Testifying at a trial can be a painful and costly experience if you aren't well prepared! Use these 101 easy tips as a jump-start to successfully prepare for your turn on the stand. The tips are the result of Dr. Noelle Nelson's working as a trial consultant with lawyers and their witnesses for over 25 years. You can see more about her work in the client results section (trial consulting tab) of her website: www.noellenelson.com. Here's what some lawyers have said about Dr. Nelson's witness preparation techniques: Noelle Nelson is an excellent jury consultant. We used her in a case to work with some particularly troublesome defense witnesses. She did a fine job coaching these witnesses on how to make a gentler, kinder, less defensive presentation in their testimony to the jury. She is easy to work with and quickly gains the cooperation and respect of even the most cantankerous witness. It is clear that she has mastered the techniques of teaching people how to make verbal and non-verbal responses which maximize their impact on the listener. - John B. Golper, Attorney; Ballard, Rosenberg & Golper If your case is burdened with the witness from Hell, don't despair, try the magic of Dr. Noelle Nelson's advice. I have seen her witness preparation skills turn a frog into a prince. - Howard A. Jaffe, Vice Chairman, COO & General Counsel, The InterGroup Corporation As a trial lawyer in my 37th year of busy practice in Los Angeles and San Francisco, I can illustrate Dr. Nelson's results for me-- 1972-1992: 26 trials, half were losses, I never even knew what I was doing wrong; 1993-2008: 68 trials, zero losses, Dr. Nelson taught me what the Bar programs did not-- how to use my witnesses effectively and how to maximize my presentation and boost my client's effect on juries...Our clients/witnesses win our trials for us! ...Seeing is believing-- our results are the proof of Dr. Nelson's excellent guidance. - Robert Pave,
