New York Times BEFORE THE GREAT GATSBY includes F. Scott Fitzgeralds first two novels which he wrote before The Great Gatsby. Filled with beautiful images of the era, this will appeal to those who want to find out more about the time and work of Fitzgerald. THIS SIDE OF PARADISE is F. Scott Fitzgeralds first novel and was a massive success on its release, its first print run sold out in three days. It resonated with the bright and brittle young things of the Jazz Age and launched Fitzgerald on his legendary career. It is a classic coming of age tale written with the passion and verve of a young man desperate for wealth and fame so that he can marry the woman he loves. F. Scott Fitzgeralds THE BEAUTIFUL AND DAMNED is the story of Anthony and Gloria, a glamorous New York couple at the beginning of the Jazz Age. Despite the privileges of wealth and position they squander everything on drink and parties. They may be beautiful but are they also damned? Fitzgerald defined his generation and is widely considered to be one of the most important and readable authors of the twentieth century.
