

Falling For Charlotte

Charlotte is the source of all my frustration and joy wrapped into the most beautiful package I have ever seen. Fate put us together and losing her is my greatest fear that is why when I see another man look her way my jealousy erupts into something I can barely control.  I see how Gareth looks at me as I continue pushing him to the point of no return. His possessiveness is growing and I hope that my not so subtle enticements will soon pay off and that Gareth will at last take my innocence. This standalone short story includes smoking hot forbidden love.
