

The Masquerading Cowboy

This award winning short story is a story of love, sex, life, and wrong choices. Edward Michael White has lived on the edge, welcoming and confronting dangers, all the while unaware of the impact he has had on four women who deeply loved him.

Recommend adult reading. The award winning story is by Linda Pendleton, author of fiction and nonfiction books and comic book adaptations. She is author of the Catherine Winter Private Eye Mystery Series; the mystery suspense novels, The Unknown, and Sound of Silence; and the historical novel, Corn Silk Days, Iowa, 1862. She is coauthor with her late husband, Don Pendleton, of the crime novel Roulette: The Search for the Sunrise Killer, and several nonfiction books including To Dance With Angels and Whispers From the Soul. She has published several other nonfiction works. She is a former long-time member of The Authors Guild.
