

You Cant Help What You Think

SHORT STORY (3800 words; psychological tale). Older man with ambitious younger attorney wife grows increasingly disillusioned with wife's loss of passion for him; he embarks on a voyeuristic episode across two high rises. He becomes obsessed with the couple and the woman who dances in the nude in front of her windows, illuminated only by candlelight. One night he witnesses violence and has to act, an action which forever changes his life. The twisting ending will leave you wondering what was real and what was not.
