

BabyDoll (Heart of Detroit Book 3)

A stranger in a dark alley changes Pendulyns life, when he has his way with her. She finds out there is much more to this dark, mysterious man than what she thought. In the end, she learns an unforgettable lesson in pleasure, but also deceit, lies and pain. originally pub Nov2010 READER REVIEWS In this short story I felt Pendulyns fear and excitement. It kept me in suspense through out and on edge. This was a great read. K.Jones I have been wanting to read this book for a while. Sylvia Hubbard did it again, I LOVE THE HEART FAMILY... Baby Doll is nothing what you think it is. I just hate it was a short story, but in all it was a great story and I cant wait for the next HEART FAMILY SERIES. S.
