

Song at Dawn: 1150 in Provence (The Troubadours Quartet) (Volume 1)

Believable, page-turning and memorable. Lela Michael, S.P. Review Winner of the Global Ebook Award for Best Historical Fiction

1150: Provence On the run from abuse, Estela wakes in a ditch with only her lute, her amazing voice, and a dagger hidden in her underskirt. Her talent finds a patron in Alienor of Aquitaine and more than a music tutor in the Queens finest troubadour and Commander of the Guard, Dragonetz los Pros. Weary of war, Dragonetz uses Jewish money and Moorish expertise to build that most modern of inventions, a papermill, arousing the wrath of the Church. Their enemies gather, ready to light the political and religious powder-keg of medieval Narbonne. Set in the period following the Second Crusade, Jean Gills spellbinding romantic thrillers evoke medieval France with breathtaking accuracy. The characters leap off the page and include amazing women like Eleanor of Aquitaine and Ermengarda of Narbonne, who shaped history in battles and in bedchambers. One of the best historical novels Ive read in a long time.
