A Life In Art*

Amaranth Roslyn Ehrenhalt (15 January 1928 present), is an American born painter, sculptor, writer, and multifaceted artist, who has spent the majority of her career living and working in Paris. Ehrenhalt is one of the few abstract expressionists from the New York School of the 1950s who is still actively making new work. She now lives and works in New York City. This collection of autobiographical short stories follows Ehrenhalt from Philadelphia to Paris, Morocco, Pietrasanta, Greece, and back to New York City.
