A Standalone Novel with No Cliffhangers! A Historical Western Victorian Mail Order Bride Romance Abby had grown up on the outskirts of London until a tragic accident killed her father and sent her mother to try and support themselves in the city. She manages to earn an education and then a position as a nanny in the Americas so she packs up all her possessions to start a new life in Boston. But her job in Boston turns out to be less than ideal as the children's father grows upset about her mingling with people outside his home and he seeks to impose his will on her and his family. Finally, a brutal attack on Abby forces her to flee Boston and she heads west hoping that a mail order advertisement might be her key to happiness. Once again she travels a great distance looking for new opportunities and finds that opportunity with Jeb. She is taken under the guardianship of the local inn owners who chaperone her meetings to make sure that both their intentions are true. As their connection grows Jeb finally allows Abby to see who he truly is and asks her to spend their lives together. Limited Time Only! Get This Book Before The Promotion Runs Out!
