

Vincent Van Gogh (Spanish Edition)

Un libro, un itinerario abrasivo de la presencia de la mujer, del paisaje y la obsesion, tales los paradigmas internos que recorrieron la vida urgente de Vincent Van Gogh.No la mujer en carne y hueso sino la mujer-guia: la senora Jones, la mujer-madre Kee Vos, Christine Hoornik de Siena, Margot Begemann. Las mujeres-retrato como Augustine Roulin y Madame Ginoux.Y luego los espacios, infinitos, inolvidables en la obra del genio: Isleworth, Amsterdam, le Borange, Arles, St. Remy, Auvers-sur-Oise, donde Vincent transcurrio su existencia procurando captar los colores, la atmosfera, la luz.El dolor de la finitud y la obsesion por alcanzar la redencion a traves del arte, por una religiosidad intima y tormentosa, por el amor fraterno, por el sol del mediodia frances y, en suma, por la muerte.Una vida afanosa e ineludible en la que el arte interactuo, en doloroso gesto, con la voluntad ferrea de una mano que nunca perdio el rumbo.La vida de un hombre amado y abnegado, silenciado por la angustia y la desesperacion creadora que solo pudo encontrar quietud, finalmente, al trascender la muerte.
