Its 1858 and along with the fresh milk and eggs love is being delivered in Helena Montana! This historical, inspirational Western romance much-loved series is about empowered women who selflessly give up everything for the improvement of their families. They turn around their hopeless circumstances in this 19th-century tale of the old West, with strong faith and discover authentic men and true love. Meet Margaret O'Farrell (Maggie), with no family to take care of her in Europe she is put on a ship from Dublin to New York. She works for a strong but kindhearted Romanian Duchess to keep a roof over her head. However, she longs for companionship and good quality man. A nasty New Yorker named Thomas O'Reilly stocks her frequently. So she makes a decision to become a mail order bride and go to the unknown wild West. She agrees to marry James Kelly, a small cattle farmer. Will Mr. James Kelly be all that he claims to be? Will Maggie say no the minute she meets him face-to-face when she finds out the secret he kept from her? Will wealthy local man Clarence Walters steal her away? Jump on the wagon and hold on are going to make some deliveries, fall in love and hang out with the likes of Auntie Vera, Dutchess, are beautiful Maggie and her handsome groom with a big secret James has. Oh and don't forget about Thomas and Clarence who would also love to be with Maggie!.... a story of hope, fear, romance, suspense and true love.... While this book is part of a romance series, it can definitely be read as a standalone book.
