You might ask, why would a company pay for my opinion? The answer is that market research is a cornerstone of sales. When companies develop products their first step is to figure out what consumers want. To do this they often enlist the help of a market research firm. Large corporations will even have their own market research departments to help them find out what consumers want or need. The key to this research lies in finding people willing and able to answer questions about products, lifestyle, and experiences. These companies spend a lot of money making sure that the products they develop will be marketable to consumers, and a chunk of that money can easily be yours.
