Courtship by Absent Treatment? First published in 1908 as an article in Munsey's Magazine, a leading magazine of its day, Courtship by Absent Treatment by Wallace D. Wattles, whose best known for his classic masterpiece The Science of Getting Rich, is a fictional case study of how one man used absent treatment to convince the woman he loved to marry him. Three times within a year Billy asked Cora to marry him. Three times she refused him. However, she did so in such a way that insured his asking her again. After having an interesting discussion with Cora about absent treatment, Billy decided to use it to convince her to marry him. Fourteen days after Billy began courting Cora by absent treatment, they were on their way to get married. What's absent treatment, and how did Billy use it to win Cora's hand in marriage? You'll find out in Courtship by Absent Treatment by Wallace D. Wattles. Want to Know More? Then... Scroll up, click or tap the buy button, and get your copy today!
