

The Motorsport Art of Michael Turner

For more than 50 years, Turner has been painting and drawing cars, circuits, races, and personalities in all branches of motorsport, from F1 to rallying and endurance driving, sports car racing to the Indy 500. This book spans subjects from the 1947 British Empire Trophy race through the 2000 F1 World Championship, with more than 80 full-color reproductions. Turner includes fascinating insights about the drivers and team bosses, as well as historic photographs from his personal collection.
