

Supreme Court Cases: v. 1

This small book by Sivaramayya is a meaningful exposition of an important subject. The author deals with various aspects of inequality that exist in society and the laws effort to eliminate it. In the first chapter he gives us a background of the inequalities which prevailed in pre-independent India. In chapter II he explains law equality as an objective was enshrined in the Constitution. Three major concepts of equality have been incorporated in the constitution, namely, (i) egalitarian or numerical, (ii) meritarian and (iii) proportional.
