EXTRACT: Another heavy sigh. Claire, I know who called this morning. Oh. Are you going to tell me why she called? Claire shook her head and cut another slice off her steak. Its immaterial. Nothings immaterial where you and I are concerned. Then its a good thing you and I arent concerned in this matter. Claire. Claire wanted to scream. She obviously wasnt going to be able to dodge this one. The corporation is in trouble. That bastard my father wanted me to marry was embezzling. My mother wants me to come running home to fix it. Oh, and my fathers had a heart attack and is awaiting open heart surgery. Silence. When Claire finally deigned to meet Jordans eyes, they were full of sympathy. Im sorry, Claire, he finally said, reaching for her hand. That must have been very startling news for you to hear. I wish you had told me sooner. Like I said, it has nothing to do with us. Of course it does. What are you going to do? My life is here now, Claire said simply, and tried to smile at him. I have you and the cafe. Thats what I want. Theres what you want, and theres whats right, Jordan replied. It sounds like your family needs you. They rejected me. This could be an opportunity for healing, Claire, Jordan said in his deep, soothing voice. It would mean leaving you, she said, and her voice broke. Jordan reached across the table with his other hand and grasped hers. He clutched her fingers tightly in his. We can have a long distance relationship. Ill come and visit you, he promised. And Ill be here when you get back. What if I dont come back? she whispered. What if I cant? Lets not talk in what ifs, he said. Lets enjoy what is, right now.
