No one knows that he is Le MarinEuropes most daring and brazen spy. But everything changes the night he finds a dagger pressed against his ribs and an alluring hazel-eyed minx in his bed. Born into the Vindictam, the renowned Venetian family of assassins, Liselle dreams of the day she will be allowed to practice the family craft. And when she is sent to the Scottish court, her dream is finally realized. But is it an honor or a curse? As the threat of civil war looms over Scotland, and the kings own brother conspires with the English to put himself on the Scottish throne, Julian cant help but be distracted by the mysterious Venetian beauty and her many secrets. But will it be his undoing?
