

Secondhand Lover

After years of losing his love interests to twin brother, James Jordan is doing just fine. He has a striving business and a large home just waiting for the wife and kids he hopes will soon share it with him. His orderly world is turned upside down when he arrives at work one morning to find the lovely Mila Jensen camping outside his office. Stricken with lust at first sight, James sees an opportunity to get even with his twin when Mila mistakes him for his brother Jason. His plan backfires when he and Mila fall hard for each other. Then Jason breezes into town and James fears hell lose her to his womanizing twin brother.
