

Keeping Her Love Secure

Brenda Fletcher is a young, upwardly mobile IT professional in her hometown in Washington, D.C. Her ebony skin and curvaceous figure certainly don't go unnoticed by the local men, but after a series of failed relationships, she's given up on the opposite sex. Her new work associate is no exception. While he might look like a modern day warrior with his broad shoulders, pale complexion and striking blue eyes, she finds him annoying and arrogant. If it is true that opposites attract, then she and Ethan Henderson are the poster children for that school of thought. Imagine her surprise when she learns that they have more in common than she knew and finds herself on a rollercoaster ride of passion and forgiveness. A quick read. 10000 words. This is a black woman white man interracial romance short story.
