

Under Western Eyes

Two of British author Joseph Conrad's novels are in this Kindle ebook: Under Western Eyes & his follow-up novel Chance. Under Western Eyes (1911) Razumov, a young orphaned Russian student, is surprised to find Victor Haldin hiding in his apartment even more so when Haldin confesses he has just committed a political assassination and is on the run from police. Razumov agrees to help Haldin escape but he is panic-stricken. Instead, Razumov confides in his university professor, an old English professor of languages, and they plan to turn Haldin over to the chief of police. As the trap is set, Razumov finds himself immersed in the world of secret agents.

Chance (1913) Charles Marlow is our trusted narrator for this tale, but different narrators take up the story at different points. The focus, however, is on a female character: the heroine, Flora de Barral, the daughter of a convicted swindler named Smith de Barral.

About The Author Joseph Conrad (1857-1924) was a Polish author who moved to England to become one of the greatest English language novelists, even though he did not speak the language fluently until he was in his 20s. Films have been adapted from, or inspired by, Conrad's Almayers Folly, An Outcast of the Islands, Heart of Darkness, Lord Jim, Nostromo, The Secret Agent, The Duel, Victory, The Shadow Line, and The Rover.

Joseph Conrad Classics Include:

1. Almayers Folly (1895)
