

Comprehensive Commercial Law 2011 Statutory Supplement

This distinct commercial statutes supplement: is more functional than most other supplements, due to thicker paper and a thinner volume, allowing users to highlight important sections without obscuring text on the other side of the page includes the entire text (excluding Article 6), with comments, of the Uniform Commercial Code as promulgated by the National Council of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, but excludes items that typically appear in such supplements that are not important to the commercial law courses supplies a variety of important documents that typically are not part of other supplements, including documents produced by bodies such as UNCITRAL and privately produced commercial law documents from entities such as the ICC provides several value added features that cross-reference the various parts of the Uniform Commercial Code, particularly Revised Article 9, in response to the increasing complexity of this statute
