Doing the right thing sucked in a way that in this moment, Charlie Howard saw clearly why good men went bad. How someone who spent his life fighting on the side of good, could suddenly swerve and venture down the dark side. The agony of knowing there was a possible way to save Lizzy, but not doing so because it would mean taking a dark path, was an inner torture unlike anything hed ever experienced in his life. Lizzy Deane is stuck in a living nightmare. Which means shes not only living out her worst fear, of being stuck in another prison, but shes unable to break the curse on the vampire, Grayson Moone. Who is still locked up in the basement of the Howard Witches, but for how much longer? Hes getting stronger with every day that passes. The only reality they are sure is coming: they are running out of time to both break this curse, and save Lizzy. An outcome Charlie is not dealing with well at all, and one that leads him down a path he never considered hed go. Will he give into the temptation? Or do whats right for Lizzy, and The Demon Isle? Or will he falter and turn down a dark path he never thought possible?
