

Her Detective

Crystal Amherst is an up and coming news anchor for a local television station. A new assignment finds her working with Detective Larry Hutson of the Chicago Police Department. He is insanely gorgeous, but his personality leaves a lot to be desired. Though they initially don't see eye to eye, he seems to need her help and extends an invitation for her to assist him with the case she is interested in reporting. Crystal soon finds that the hot young detective is far more interesting to her than the case. She finds herself in his capable arms both in and out of the bedroom. A quick read. 8800 words. This is a black woman white man interracial romance short story.
